FLAVOR  PAPER

Artist's Mind/Studio/World is an illustrative wallpaper that invites you into artist Viola Frey's world of inspiration. Viola depicts an imaginative view of her studio/home scenes while peering into her own mind, using actual details of figurines, objects, and some of her own sculptures to set the scene.

While this design was originally screenprinted and required 40 screens, we have recreated it as a digital wallpaper. Viola was known for jarring combinations of color that somehow synthesize into a cohesive and pleasant palette, and this design exemplifies this amazing skill. Her use of a pale peachy yellow background to pop Yves Klein Blue, orange, teal, and near Brat green is enchanting. The Diamond Flash fabric substrate perfectly matches the sateen original with a subtle shimmer.

Viola Frey was an American artist working in sculpture, painting and drawing in the Bay Area. She is well-known for her larger-than-life, colorfully glazed clay sculptures. Flavor Paper is proud to work with Viola's Artists' Legacy Foundation to bring Artist's Mind/Studio/World to you.
