FLAVOR  PAPER

Dan Funderburgh's Culinary Toile is a witty tribute to historic woodblock prints illustrating a clever blend of countryside scenes that feature food related content. From giant pasta makers to teams carrying loads of asparagus to toaster farmhouses, each scene takes a classic pastoral concept and adds a gastronomic twist. While the overall aesthetic leans European, the food focus includes sushi rolls in lieu of hay rolls and avocados acting as birdbaths to round out the global appeal and inclusion.

The Delftware colorway reflects traditional Dutch and early toile colorations with three classic matte blues handscreened on an ivory clay coated paper substrate.

Handscreened and made-to-order in Brooklyn, NY.
