FLAVOR PAPER

Élan Vital is a modern interpretation of still life. While traditional still life artists were once limited to local plants, we now have access to a vast range of global floral species. This atmospheric composition is the result of Ovando's incomparable floral arranging skills. The level of photographic detail and vibrancy captured by Skot Yobauje Photography is stunning, resulting in a highly realistic wallpaper.

Tropical is a polychromatic repeating floral pattern built from several images created during our photoshoots at Ovando's studio, some of which feature prominently in the Élan Vital murals.

Sandra de Ovando was born in Mexico City and fell in love with nature, flowers, and bold colors at a very young age. Sandra traveled extensively until she landed in NYC, which nourished her devotion to designing exquisite flower and plant arrangements.
