FLAVOR PAPER

Furniture and styling HiLo Brooklyn, Photography Chaunte Vaughn

When asked to create a design based on “bustiers, panties, and lacy things,” Jon Sherman made his first wallpaper pattern, Fishnet. From afar, the viewer sees fishnet stockings, but when you get closer, the details reveal that the pattern is built from legs in fishnets joining at lingerie-filled diamonds. Fishnet is held in the permanent collection of the Brooklyn Museum.

Boudoir is a luscious colorway with matte oxblood ink handscreened on blush pink clay coated paper that rides the line between naughty and nice.

Flavor Paper founder and creative director Jon Sherman is a self-trained artist and designer whose work has been featured in numerous museums, books, and projects.

Handscreened and made-to-order in Brooklyn, NY.
