FLAVOR  PAPER

Furniture and styling HiLo Brooklyn, Photography Chaunte Vaughn

Artists Jon Sherman and Boone Speed found a gorgeous Brazilian amethyst quartz specimen at the Gem Show in Arizona, where they were searching for wallpaper concepts. They photographed the naturally formed prismatic gemstones and then digitally layered the images to create Of Quartz It Is. This wallpaper will fill your space with its grounding presence and sense of serenity, which is simultaneously powerful and comforting.

The Moss colorway has vibrant citrine crystals that display color zoning, with the most intense color typically found at the crystal terminations. This variety of color depth, ranging from yellow-green to deep mossy evergreen, gives the wallpaper a highly textural appearance. Moss is digitally printed on a chrome Mylar and reveals depth and reflectivity that defy its 2D form.

Flavor Paper founder and creative director Jon Sherman is a self-trained artist and designer whose work has been featured in numerous museums, books, and projects. Digitally printed to order in the USA.
