FLAVOR PAPER

Artists Jon Sherman and Boone Speed found a gorgeous Brazilian amethyst quartz specimen at the Gem Show in Arizona, where they were searching for wallpaper concepts. They photographed the naturally formed prismatic gemstones and then digitally layered the images to create Of Quartz It Is. This wallpaper will fill your space with its grounding presence and sense of serenity, which is simultaneously powerful and comforting.

Rose has vibrant reddish-pink crystals that display color zoning, with the most intense color typically found at the crystal terminations. This variety of color depth ranging from burgundy to rose gold gives the wallpaper a highly textural appearance. Digitally printed on a mirror-finish gold Mylar, Rose reads warm, sanguine, and sexy.
