ARBOR VITAE

by Jon Sherman

In the spirit of adding fresh, feel-good vibes to the world, Flavor Paper has cultivated a departure design that offers a fresh take on classic Chinoiserie – feast your eyes on Arbor Vitae. Rooted in an 18-century etching discovered in a Gowanus, BK storage unit by Flavor founder and creative director, Jon Sherman, this mural maintains the historical integrity of the work while moving modern with an au current color palette and unexpected materials. For example: Stormy and Twilight are printed on a mirrored Mylar ground that comes to life with a quiet ombre effect; Dawn and Misty make magic with an ombre on a satiny textured Type II Vinyl; and Lucky is quite lovely in a lipstick red that’s also printed on the linen-like Vinyl. Clearly, Arbor Vitae is a natural selection if you’re craving tranquil yet dynamic, whimsical yet sophisticated, luxurious and livable art that will stand the test of time...or until you axe it! This is non-repeating mural that is scaled and cropped based on the provided wall dimensions.
