BROOKLYN BRIDGE WALL

by Boone Speed, Jon Sherman

One wall of a series that FP's own Jon Sherman and collaborator / photographer Boone Speed created based upon the premise of bringing the outside inside called Rock In. Brooklyn Bridge Wall took some death-defying feats to shoot and was more tagged – by NY graffiti artist FADE – then when first scouted, but now it can transform a clean wall into a textured and interesting place to show off your contemporary furniture collection.

The image is a non-repeating mural and is scaled and cropped based on the provided wall dimensions.
