These stunning Flavors are a modern interpretation of still life. Utilizing the incomparable floral arranging skills of Ovando, this refreshing atmospheric take on the classic work of art evokes a similar reproduction of inanimate flowers, but at a level of photographic detail captured by the one and only Skot Yobauje Photography. Flavor Paper worked closely with Ovando to create dynamically shaped floral arrangements featuring a global selection of flora. While traditional still-life artists were limited to what was available locally, today we have access to an incredibly broad range of floral species...many are represented in Élan Vital. The images are non-repeating murals and are scaled and cropped based on the provided wall dimensions.
