GLOBETROTTER

by Andy Warhol® x Flavor Paper

Globetrotter started as a true passion project for Jon Sherman when he was presented with the opportunity to create a custom Warhol-based pattern for his newborn son's Bugaboo stroller. Finding Warhol's toy prints an ideal starting point and his excessive travel schedule additional inspiration, Sherman selected only the travel related spaceship, car, plane, train, motorcycle and boat prints. Sherman overlaid these prints on a vintage French map of the world, adding globes as a polka dot pattern and Andy Warhol x Flavor Paper logos as passport stamps. Offered as an easy-to-install, pre-pasted, eco-friendly wallpaper, it is perfect for kids', family, play rooms...or anywhere future globetrotters are inspired.
