OCELOT

by Boone Speed, Jon Sherman

Want a rare cat pelt that can fully wrap a room? Yeah, we did, too. So, when the occasion to shoot one came along, Flavor collaborator and photographer, Boone Speed, helped us make it happen. The entire fur would run about 21' wide at 10' high, so this kitty can cover you up. Depending on installation specifics, Ocelot can work in any orientation. We want to see it on the ceiling in a room full of mirrors. Muahahaha!!!

The image is a non-repeating mural and is scaled and cropped based on the provided wall dimensions.
